

Deceased Estates Checklist for Australian Residents

This checklist has been prepared to assist executors and administrators when dealing with the securities of an individual deceased securityholder where the deceased was an Australian resident. The below information is to provide guidance on Computershare's requirements under different circumstances and is not to be regarded as legal advice. Executors and administrators should obtain their own legal advice regarding their obligations.

Please note: Separate forms must be completed for each securityholding held by the deceased.

Computershare can only accept originally certified copies of legal documents i.e. Probate, Death Certificate, Will etc.

Important: Please do not send original legal documents to Computershare. Fees may apply for the return of documentation submitted.
